FOS—Forum on Orthodox Spirituality—is a ministry of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocesan Cathedral of the Holy Trinity. Conducted by Rev. Frank Marangos, D.Min, Ed.D, FOS was created in response to the need voiced by New York-area professional men and women for deeper spiritual illumination and nourishment. FOS aims to transform lives by drawing attendees into a fuller understanding of Orthodox faith and worship, all in the context of contemporary society. FOS also seeks to build strong relationships and a sense of community.

Avatars of Spirituality: Rediscovering the Parable of the Prodigal Son

*LENTEN RETREAT
Forum on Orthodox
Spirituality (FOS)*

March 12 - 14, 2010

*St. Methodios
Faith & Heritage Center
329 Camp Merrimac Road,
Contoocook, NH 03229
603.746.4400*

Purpose

A Lenten Retreat sponsored by the Forum on Orthodox Spirituality (FOS), a ministry of the Archdiocesan Cathedral of the Holy Trinity in New York City, will focus on Holy Scripture and Contemporary Culture, examining prodigals from each context. Young adult professionals from the Metropolis of Boston are invited and welcome to attend.

Location

Nestled in the tranquil woods of New Hampshire in the historic town of Contoocook, the magnificent Retreat House rests on the shores of one of two lakes on the Metropolis of Boston's idyllic 191-acre property.

Speakers

Fr. Frank Marangos is Dean of the Archdiocesan Cathedral of the Holy Trinity and an Adjunct Assistant Professor at St. John's University, New York City. He served as the Archdiocesan Director of Religious Education; as Executive Director of Communications; and as Adjunct Assistant Professor of Religious Education, and Homiletics at Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology. He holds doctorates in both Adult Education and Christian Education and is a certified Distance Learning Leader (USDLA).

Fr. Luke Veronis is the pastor of Ss. Constantine and Helen in Webster, MA; is an Adjunct Instructor at Hellenic College-Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology; and Director of the Missions Institute of Orthodox Christianity. He and Presvytera Faith have been involved in Orthodox missions since 1987, serving in Albania (10 years), Kenya, Tanzania, Uganda and Ghana (1½ years). He holds a Masters of Theology in Missiology with several published works on missions.

Fr. Alexander Chetsas is the assistant priest at St. Demetrios Church in Weston, MA where he works extensively with youth and young adult ministries. He is a graduate of Salem State College and Hellenic College/Holy Cross. He has taught literature, speech, and film criticism at colleges in Colorado and the greater Boston area. He has served parishes in California and Florida.

Curriculum

Drawing from Timothy Keller's book entitled The Prodigal God (2008) and from St. John Chrysostom's exegesis of the parable, as well as using vignettes from the blockbuster film AVATAR, Frs. Frank, Luke, and Alex will discuss the Parable of the Prodigal Son.

During the sessions, we will examine prodigals of the Old and New Testaments, namely, the nation of Israel, David, Peter, and Paul. We will also discuss contemporary avatars of prodigal behavior previously discerned from Scriptural and Patristic analysis.

The retreat will conclude with a focus on the issue of CHOICE: Where do we want to live? Paradise (Church) or Pandora (the planet's name in AVATAR, an obvious reference to the mythological goddess that the Holy Fathers associated with Eve)? The retreat will encourage participants to review their own lives in terms of the avatars/personalities that we assume in our varied roles in this continually fragmented postmodern society.
